The Arroyo Arts Collective presents For The Birds
co-sponsored by the Audubon Center at Debs Park

Site-specific installations address a wide range of themes related to local birds, their habitat, health and safety, migratory patterns and the painting of James John Audubon. In addition, members of the Arroyo Arts Collective will present an indoor exhibition of bird-related work, to be auctioned as a benefit for the Audubon Center on May 7. Enjoy a truly unique blend of art and nature, and a rare glimpse of an urban wildlife sanctuary set in a Northeast Los Angeles neighborhood.
